It's panto time! Ealing Arts + Leisure members are ready to oblige, and will ensure you don't have to travel far for a show your children (and probably not only your children) will love. And the approach of Christmas brings that other annual delight, the Christmas concert; whether your taste is for choral or orchestral, sing-along or sit-down-and listen, young at heart or properly grown-up, you'll be spoilt for choice in our music pages. But it's not all pantos and carols: not everything is seasonal, and there is much here to enjoy – even in January!

We sometimes get asked what Ealing Arts + Leisure is for. Our most obvious function is of course the publication of this Diary, both in print and on our website, where you can find any updates, and events further ahead. But we're here to support the arts and culture generally, and we are able to make grants from time to time, especially when a modest sum would make a real difference to what an organisation could achieve. For instance, we support Ealing in Bloom, and the past year has seen help for the Ealing Autumn Festival and BEAT (the Borough of Ealing Art Trail) – both of the latter giving a wide spread of encouragement to the arts, beyond a single member.

You can contribute too, and by far the best way is to go to our marvellous local events, and join the splendid societies which help make Ealing such a wonderful borough.

IMPROBABLE FICTION

The Pendon Writers' Circle spend most of their meetings explaining to each other why they haven't done any writing, and how great their writing would be if they had actually done it.

The group chairman, Arnold, suggests that they pool their ideas, but the writers must leave as a storm brews outside – and fictional worlds burst to hilarious life inside...

Ayckbourn's exquisite, observational comedy and warmth for his characters are both in plentiful supply – so come along and enjoy this perfect Christmas entertainment!

Suitable for ages 12+ (contains loud bangs and ghostliness)

7.45pm; 2.30 Sunday matinee.

COMIC POTENTIAL by Alan Ayckbourn

The actoids are performing for soapland TV. Adam wants to produce his own programme and chooses Jacie who seems to be developing human characteristics as his lead player. What will happen when he takes her out of a TV studio?

The politics of cost cutting and dumbing down combined with the romance of Romeo and Juliet.

COME AND SING WITH QUESTORS CHOIR

Don't be shy – come along and see what you make of us. Newcomers can attend up to three sessions on a free trial basis. There are no auditions, and all abilities and voice parts are welcome. Try us out and you'll soon have a passion for choral singing! Our repertoire is deliberately varied. Past concert performances include major works ranging from Baroque to contemporary, as well as folk songs, spirituals and carols. Above all, we aim to enjoy ourselves through singing. In addition to performing in three to four concerts a year, we also organise or take part in open singing days, choral workshops and singing festivals. Each Christmas we sing for a national or local charity selected by choir members.

8 - 10pm. St Martin's Church, Hale Gardens, W3 9SQ

Full year subscription £140 (concessions £120), or early bird discount rate of £130 (concessions £110). Single term rate £60 (concessions £50).

www.questorschoir.org.uk

Thursdays

We are a friendly choir of about 50 voices with an ambitious repertoire ranging from Allegri and Byrd through Mozart and Schubert to Shearing and Rutter. We give three concerts a year, often with soloists from the London colleges of music and an orchestra, and pride ourselves on the quality of our performances. We have regular social activities too.

Christmas concert: 4th December 2016 – Charpentier, Poulenc, and Lauridsen Spring concert: 2nd April 2017 – Goodall Eternal Light; Whitacre Songs; and...

Why not come and try us? You'll be sure of a welcome. You can attend up to three sessions on a free-trial basis. There are no auditions but you will have sung on and off all your life, be able to sing in tune and perhaps sight-read a simple line.
