Christmas and another New Year

As the weeks of festivity approach, Ealing Arts & Leisure would like to send season's greetings to all its readers and to thank you for your support. This year has seen a change of chairman, from John Hummerston, our leader for 13 years (and three years prior to this stint), to Gill Rowley, who hopes to be in direct contact with many of our members in the months to come. John will be a hard act to follow, and we'd like to pay tribute to him for all his hard work on behalf of this organisation and its members.

As you have been warned, the name of this Diary is changing to What's On, and you will see it in its new incarnation when the February/March issue appears. Our website will also reflect the new design, and we will be putting effort into publicising these changes, and hence our societies. If you're thinking of having a New Year membership drive, consider taking out an ad in these pages to bring in new blood...

I hope 2018 brings you everything you wish for.

Gill Rowley, Chair, Ealing Arts & Leisure

COME AND SING WITH QUESTORS CHOIR

Don't be shy – come along and see what you make of us. Newcomers can attend up to three sessions on a free trial basis. There are no auditions, and all abilities and voice parts are welcome. Try us out and you'll soon have a passion for choral singing!

Our repertoire is deliberately varied. Past concert performances include major works ranging from Baroque to contemporary, as well as folk songs, spirituals and carols. Above all, we aim to enjoy ourselves through singing. In addition to performing in three to four concerts a year, we also organise or take part in open singing days, choral workshops and singing festivals. Each Christmas we sing for a national or local charity selected by choir members.

8 - 10pm. St Martin's Church, Hale Gardens, W3 9SQ

Full year £140 or £130 early bird or £110 concessions; term £60 or £50 concessions.

Anyone over 16 can join, and if you are 25 or under your annual membership is free of charge.

WEEKLY REHEARSALS

Musical Director: Phiroz Dalal. Phiroz has lived in Ealing all his life. He studied piano with Eileen Rowe and gained a Masters in choral education at Roehampton. He currently sings with the BBC Symphony Chorus.

If you have sung on and off all your life, can sing in tune, read music and sight-read a simple line then you'll enjoy our friendly choir.

We give three concerts a year, one per term. We sing everything from the Brahms Requiem to songs written by living composers like Howard Goodall and Eric Whitacre.

7.30 - 9.30pm. St Matthew's Church, North Common Road, Ealing W5 2QA

Unbelievably only £40 per term

CEPAC - a giant step closer to

An Arts Centre for Ealing

In October, the public voted overwhelmingly for the Council to adopt the Central Ealing Neighbourhood Plan, which has CEPAC's idea for an arts centre as its top development priority.

We want Ealing to be a regional centre of excellence for music, drama, dance, film, comedy and other arts.

We plan a multi-purpose performance and community space with modern facilities to complement existing cultural, educational and cinema provision.

We have a willing developer with a central site. We must now complete technical studies to decide how the centre will be built and operate.

BUT: we need to raise £20,000 to fund these studies.

Please help us by donating to our appeal!

Visit our web site www.cepac.org.uk, or see us on Facebook /EalingArtsCentre.

You can increase your donation by up to 25% if you

giftaid it
