What's On – so much to do in Ealing

It's perhaps a bit late by the time you see this, but Happy New Year! And please join me in welcoming our new member, the Ealing Kung Fu School – a splendid activity if you're young and flexible enough, and we hope we can help expand their already flourishing membership.

As the days lengthen, you'll find plenty here to go out to, especially in the Music section. These societies are always after new blood, too – as are all our members. Whether you have a particular interest or simply want to socialise with like-minded people, do take the plunge and get in touch with a promising group.

All of our members are listed on the back cover, and you can find out about them via their entries here, by visiting our website Members section, or by phoning 020 8567 4075 if the internet is not for you.

Copies of What's On can go quickly. See the back cover if you'd like to have it delivered to you.

MAKE NEW FRIENDS, IMPROVE YOUR HEALTH AND ENJOY OUR LOVELY TOWN AND COUNTRYSIDE.

Walks are 4-12 miles, led by volunteers and carefully graded. Almost all our walks are accessible by public transport and have a lunchtime picnic/pub/cafe stop. There is usually no need to book - just turn up and introduce yourself to the leader.

Please see website details for each walk.

No charge, but after a couple of 'taster' walks you will need to join the RA.

IMPACT Theatre IMPACT THEATRE OSCARS

FRIDAY 6 MARCH

The evening will be a celebration of IMPACT's neurodivergent performers and artists, as they receive awards for their work over the past three years. In addition to delicious Indian food, the evening will feature presentations on the achievements of our performers and artists. You can support IMPACT's invaluable work by buying a supporter ticket for £60. This helps towards the cost of the event. The rising costs over the last few years mean the event costs a lot more to put on than it used to, and we appreciate your support. All our performers attend as guests, and parents' and carers' tickets are subsidised.

7pm. Royal Nawaab, Perivale
