Summer! Does the idea of Leisure, Pleasure and Entertainment feel far away? Not in Ealing – take a look at this Diary of Events and find so much to do, see, and enjoy – one is spoiled for choice. Many activities are listed, classes to increase knowledge or fitness, drama for Thespians, concerts a-plenty offering great music for every taste.

The Drayton Court Jazz Festival is a special Ealing Event: last year's one-day Festival has grown to three days of wonderful Jazz to be performed by local bands and Ealing Musicians.

A varied programme is listed for our unique and popular musical venue St Mary's Perivale and at St Barnabas' Church in Pitshanger Lane; concerts will embrace Orchestral, Solo and Operatic works. Our young musicians of the Ealing Youth Orchestra will be flying the flag for us in Hungary, performing three concerts in Budapest in mid-August. Do encourage any friends in those parts to swell their audiences!

Have you been "on the BEAT"? The Borough of Ealing Art Trail is thriving on last Summer's success. Talented artists will open their studios again over two weekends, 8-10th and 15-17th September, and many artworks and crafts items will be on sale.

Your local "Arts" – at your pleasure.

ART & CRAFTS

Last year saw the launch of the first ever Borough of Ealing Art Trail.

We are pleased to announce that this successful event, spread over two weekends in September, is to be repeated. There will be over 60 individual and group venues showing the work of over 170 individual artists covering a diverse range of media.

Why not follow the trail? It will be an event not to be missed!

8-10th and 15-17th September

Make sure the dates are in your diary!

Brochures will be available from the beginning of August and full details will be on the BEAT website: www.ealingbeat.org.uk

THE TAMING OF THE SHREW by William Shakespeare

Old Shrew – new dress! The Taming of the Shrew is one of Shakespeare's less performed comedies due to its audaciously sexist content. In this production, we take the battle of the sexes and turn it on its head, to discover what lies at the heart of this controversial play. Is Kate really tamed? Is Petruchio the man he appears to be? Who is really wearing the trousers? Delve into the divided world of gender politics through Shakespeare's beautiful language in this fast-moving comic tale.

LONG-TERM & REGULAR EVENTS

Tuesdays

Rainbow Poetry Group

If you enjoy poetry on a wide range of subjects, we invite you to our informal monthly meetings at Hanwell Library (on the second Tuesday). We read and discuss published poems, usually with a specific theme each month.

Next meetings: August 8th, September 12th.

2.30pm. Hanwell Library, Cherington Road, W7 Enquiries: 020 8567 4397 / donkennedy@f2s.com

Popup Theatre (the performance name of Pisces Players)

We are a friendly drama group and pride ourselves on our diversity. We have two main productions a year, and run various workshops as well as take part in a local festival. We also give staged readings of new work. Our next production is in November, after we take a summer break in late July and August. New members are welcome, and we would like somebody to join us to be stage manager, for whom there is a role in the play. A way to dip your toes into acting. We meet regularly on Tuesdays and Thursdays when in production. Our rehearsal space is at St. Andrew's Church Centre, Mount Park Road, Ealing, W5 2RS.

We don't charge a set subscription but have a donation box and members pop in what they can when they can.
Just drop in one Tuesday or email beewolfie@talk21.com.

WE ARE AUDITIONING FOR 2017-18 SEASON

Currently recruiting in all parts. Come and join us at open rehearsals on Tuesdays 19 and 26 September, followed by an informal audition with our musical director, Richard Bannan.

We are a well-regarded chamber choir known for our communicative singing and varied repertoire – from major oratorios to exquisite miniatures. Our 2017-18 season includes a Christmas concert featuring the works of Handel's librettist Charles Jennens, and a collaboration with The Marian Consort performing the work of Thomas Tallis.

We rehearse at St Peter's Church, Black Lion Lane, W6 on Tuesdays during term-time from 8-9.45pm. Annual subscription £190. We would love to hear from young singers; members aged 27 or under can join free of charge under our bursary scheme, subject to audition.

Please contact membership@petrossingers.org and see our website for full details.

COME AND SING WITH QUESTORS CHOIR

Don't be shy – come along and see what you make of us. Newcomers can attend up to three sessions on a free trial basis. There are no auditions, and all abilities and voice parts are welcome. Try us out and you'll soon have a passion for choral singing!

Our repertoire is deliberately varied. Past concert performances include major works ranging from Baroque to contemporary, as well as folk songs, spirituals and carols.

Above all, we aim to enjoy ourselves through singing. In addition to performing in three to four concerts a year, we also organise or take part in open singing days, choral workshops and singing festivals. Each Christmas we sing for a national or local charity selected by choir members.

8 - 10pm. St Martin's Church, Hale Gardens, W3 9SQ

Full year £140 or £130 early bird or £110 concessions; term £60 or £50 concessions.

Anyone over 16 can join, and if you are 25 or under your annual membership is free of charge.
